MATTER-MANAGEMENT BOARDS

What are they and how can they help me better manage my work?

Video 1: Introduction - A Definition

What's a Matter-Management Board?

A photograph of a person's hand reaching towards a matter-management board. The board is a large sheet of paper with a grid of columns and rows. The columns are labeled 'PROJECT' and 'TASKS'. The rows are labeled 'PROJECT' and 'RANDOM'. The board is covered with various colored sticky notes (yellow, pink, white) and small white cards. The person is wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt.

A visual tool to manage any kind of work, even complex legal matters

The Principle

Tasks are represented as cards

that are moved Left to Right through columns representing the phases

The Principle

A photograph of a person's hand reaching towards a Kanban board. The board is divided into columns with blue headers labeled 'PROJECT', 'TASKS', and 'RANDOM'. The board is covered with various colored sticky notes (yellow, pink, white) representing tasks in different stages. The person is wearing a dark long-sleeved shirt.
